

David W. Chadwell

6513 Olde Knight Parkway
Columbia, SC 29209
803-695-0909
david@chadwellconsulting.com
www.chadwellconsulting.com

Education

National Board Professional Teaching Standards Certification, Early Adolescence Social Studies (2003)

MA Teaching, Elementary (1-8) Certification (1999)

University of South Carolina, Columbia, South Carolina

MA Philosophy and Social Policy, emphasis: Education (1992)

American University, Washington, District of Columbia

BA Philosophy (1989)

Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Michigan

Employment

Coordinator for Single-Gender Initiatives

South Carolina State Department of Education, Columbia, South Carolina 2007 – Present

Responsible for facilitating the development of single-gender programs across the state of South Carolina, including: training teachers, advising program creation, facilitating implementation, hosting informational sessions for faculty, parents, and community members, maintaining a network of people interested in or doing single gender education.

National Consultant on Gender and Single-Gender Education

Self-Employed, Columbia, South Carolina 2005 - Present

Conducted on-site trainings for teachers and administrators on topics related to gender: gender differences and impact within the classroom, strategies for meeting the needs of boys and girls, creating a single-gender program, and advisory programs for boys and girls. Conducted classroom observations and provided feedback for teachers and administrators. Provided services to public and charter elementary and middle schools in Washington, DC, Virginia, Maryland, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Nevada, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Missouri, and North Carolina.

Lead Teacher, Single Gender Magnet Program (Grades 6-8)

TWO Academies at Dent Middle School, Columbia, South Carolina 2004 - 2007

Responsible for administering a single-gender magnet program for boys. Oversee development and implementation of curriculum. Responsible for selection of students and public relations with community and parents.

Course Instructor, Social Studies Summer Institute for Educators

South Carolina Department of Education, Columbia, South Carolina Summer 2004 - 2006

Designed curriculum and taught an intensive one week course for 25 social studies teachers.

Develop a format for teachers to analyze state standards and write a big idea statement for their classroom, link units and lessons around the big idea statement, and develop activities to support student discovery and understanding of the big idea statement.

Teacher, Social Studies (Grade 6)

Summit Parkway Middle School, Columbia, South Carolina

1999 - 2004

Taught ancient world history to six sections of sixth grade students. Served as unit leader within an interdisciplinary team. Taught in traditional and block schedules. Developed and implemented a year-long standards-based project where students “created” their own civilizations. Received grants to support research in student achievement and project/problem-based learning. Awarded South Carolina Middle School Social Studies Teacher of the Year 2002.

Teacher, Language Arts/Social Studies (Grades 6-8)

TEDA International School, Tianjin, China

1997 - 1998

Designed and taught students from diverse countries an integrated language arts/social studies program, world history course, and writing workshop course for grades 6 – 8. Served as Middle School Coordinator.

Teacher, Self-Contained Classrooms (Grades 5/6, 6/7)

TEDA International School, Tianjin, China

1995 - 1997

In a vertically grouped classroom, taught students from diverse countries mathematics, language arts, science, social studies in English. Designed curricula for grades 5-7.

Library Media Specialist (Grades K-6)

Plymouth Meeting Friends School, Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania

1993 - 1995

Coordinated literature reading groups, research groups, and primary reading groups as well as performed traditional librarian roles (circulation, cataloguing, ordering). Integrated technology into the library curriculum. Edited the bi-monthly issue of Pipeline (a collection of student work.)

Teacher, Self-Contained (Grade 6)

Plymouth Meeting Friends School, Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania

1992 - 1993

Taught mathematics, language arts, and social studies using a variety of best practice methods.

Consultant on Transition and Advisory Programs

Self-Employed, Kalamazoo, Michigan

1988 – 1992

Designed, implemented and taught series of workshops for college and high school freshman. Workshops focused on issues of rights, respect, and responsibility.

Leadership Positions

Board Member for Montessori School of Columbia (2007 – present)

Advisory Board Member for National Association for Single Sex Public Education (2006 - present)

Upper Midlands Regional Director Elect for South Carolina Middle School Association (2006 - 2008)

Section Leader for SACS Review (Fall 2003)

Selected to review South Carolina Social Studies Standards (Fall 2003)

Participated in the design of Summer Institute on China for rising sixth graders in Richland School District Two (Summer 2003)

Participated in district alignment of Social Studies curriculum in Richland School District Two (Summer 2003)

Reviewer of South Carolina Social Studies State Standardized tests (Spring 2003)

Unit Leader at Summit Parkway Middle School (2002 – 2004)

Participant in development of undergraduate program for certification in Elementary, Early Childhood and Middle School at University of South Carolina (Summer 2002)

Cooperating teacher for pre-service intern for University of South Carolina (Spring 2002)

Led design and site implementation of Student Data Notebooks in Richland School District Two (2001-2002)

Site instructor of undergraduate practicum course for University of South Carolina (2000 – 2004)

Participant in developing Parent Standards for Social Studies for State Department of Education (Fall 2000)

Member of Middle School Task Force for Richland School District Two (1999-2000)

Researcher for “Literature Across the Curriculum” within College of Library and Information Science at University of South Carolina (Summer 1999)

Accreditation Coordinator for TEDA International School for Western Association of Schools and Colleges (1997-1998)

Middle School Coordinator at TEDA International School (1996-1998)

Strategic Planning Team Member at TEDA International School (1996-1998)

Faculty Representative to Board of Governors at Plymouth Meeting Friends School (1994-1995)

Secretary of the Committee to study Moral Development in Quaker Schools at Friends Council on Education (1993-1995)

Publications

Article: “Single-Gender Classes Can Respond to the Needs of Boys and Girls” for ASCD Express (March 2010)

Book: A Gendered Choice: Designing and Implementing Single-Sex Programs and Schools. Corwin Press (November 2009)

Article: “South Carolina: lessons from two years of a statewide initiative” for Advances in Gender and Education (October 2009)

Article: "Single-Gender Classrooms" for The School Administrator of the American Association for School Administrators (September 2009)

Article: "Single-Gender Education: An Option for Meeting Diverse Student Needs" for Middle Matters (November 2008, Vol. I, No.2)

Editorial: "Single-Sex Education" for Education Next (Spring 2008)

Interviewed for and appeared in Education Week article on single-gender education (April 2008)

Interviewed for and appeared in New York Times Magazine lead article on Single-Gender Education (February 2008)

Article: "Engaging the Differences Between Boys and Girls" for Middle Matters (March 2007, Vol. 15, No.4)

Article: "Building Civilizations with Standards, A Look at Student Motivation" The Palmetto Focus (Winter 2002)

Article: "An Annotated Bibliography of Thematic Diversity: Women, Multicultural, and Non-Violent Perspectives" through the Friends Council on Education (Spring 1995)

Article: "Libraries Are Not Just Books" in The Penn Literacy Network (Spring 1995)

National Presentations

Ticketed Session: "Creating a Single-Gender Program" at Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development National Conference (March 2008 and April 2010)

Sessions: "Creating a Single-Gender Program" and "Gender Differences in Your Classroom" at National Middle School Association Conference (November 2009)

Session: "Creating a Single-Gender Program" at National Association for Single-Sex Public Education Annual Conference (October 2007, 2008, and 2009)

Sessions: "Creating a Single-Gender Program" and "Focus: An Advisory Course for Middle School Boys" at National Middle School Association Conference (November 2007)

Session: "Time to Focus on Boys: Creating an Advisory Program" at the International Boys School Coalition Conference (June 2007)

Session: "Gender Matters" at National Middle School Association Conference (Fall 2006)

Appeared on MSNBA The Most to discuss federal guidelines for single sex schools. (October 2006)

Guest Speaker on Bloomberg Radio to discuss federal guidelines for single sex schools. (October 2006)

Session: "Focus: An Advisory Course for Boys" at National Association for Single Sex Public School Southeast Conference (Fall 2006)

Session: "How Big Ideas Influence My Teaching; How My Teaching Influences Big Ideas" at AERA National Conference (Spring 2003)

Session: "A Year-Long Problem-Based Learning Experience in Middle School" at AERA National Conference (Spring 2003)

Session: "Evolution of Choices" at AERA National Conference (Spring 2000)

State Presentations

Session: "Gender Differences and Classroom Implications" at South Carolina Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development Spring Conference (April 2008)

Half-Day Workshop "Gender Differences" and session "Top Ten Strategies" at South Carolina Middle School Association Conference (March 2008)

Session: "Single Gender Opportunities in Middle School" at South Carolina Middle School Association Conference (Spring 2005)

Session: "Constructing the Big Idea" at South Carolina Council of Social Studies Conference (Fall 2004)

Session: "Constructing Meaning and Raising Student Motivation" at Keys to High Achievement for South Carolina State Department of Education (Summer 2003)

Session: "Curriculum Reform" for teachers of English and American Studies from Russia and Kazakhstan (Summer 2002 and 2003)

Session: "Elements of Motivational Assignments" at South Carolina Council of Social Studies Conference (Fall 2002)

Session: "The First Year Teacher's Experience" at South Carolina Middle School Conference (Spring 2001)

Session: "Building A Civilization" at South Carolina Council of Social Studies Conference (Fall 2000)